

burnt the harvest leaves

© 1970 John Sturgeon

burnt the harvest leaves
once more
incense before winter
as friends came home
drifting the simplest snow
ripe for dinner
leaning back
I served the wine
and we smoked some dreams
together