

picture

© 1970 John Sturgeon

picture
a landscape swollen to cracking
picture
any tree torn at its lips
picture
a thousand images,
beasts the color of gray
now even they
gone,
picture the vaguest of wanders
like the haze
a bruised sky
rain
over morning field